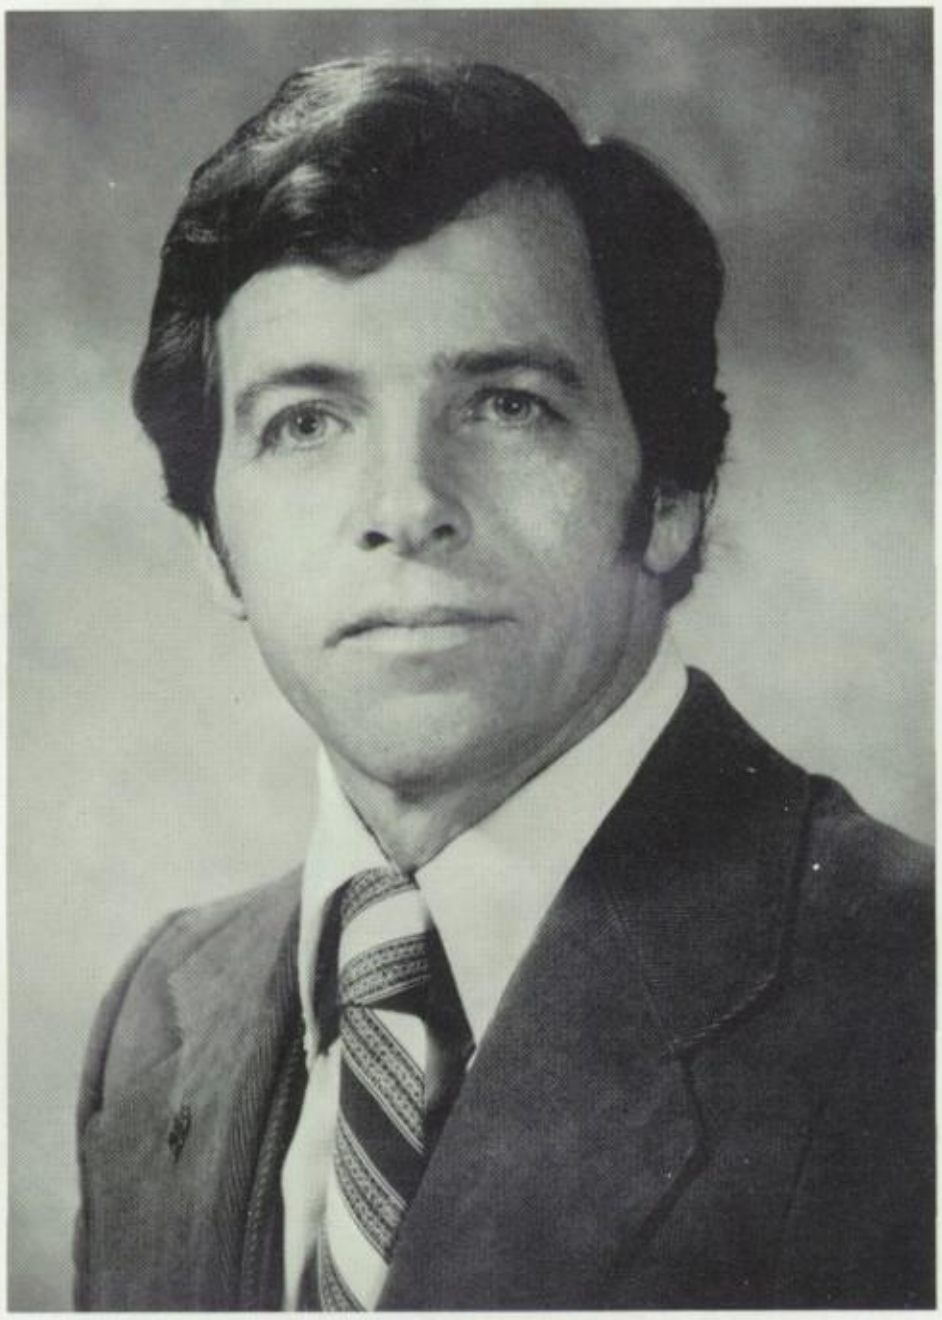
DEDICATION



MR. DOUGLAS LIBBY

We, the class of 1981, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Douglas Libby. Over the past four years, Mr. Libby has faithfully given his time in helping us to develop a sense of harmony among ourselves. He has always been here for us to talk to with a warm sense of humor and a friendly word. The excellence and success in his work are seen in his relationships with us as students. This dedication is an outward appreciation for his special influence on our lives.

Thanks, from all of us, the Class of 1981.

Our Time Is Now

We have dreamed many dreams;
Now is the time to live them.

We have received much knowledge;
Now is the time to apply it.

We have set many goals;
Now is the time to reach for them.

We have been led through our lives;
Now is the time to lead others.

Kelly Overlock

We Have Dreamed Many Dreams; Now Is Our Time to Live Them.

Over the years we have shared some very special moments with one another. We have created unforgettable friendships through which we have confided our deepest aspirations. Dreams have always been a great part of our lives. In the first grade they consisted of being a movie star or super hero like Batman or Wonder Woman. As we grew and matured, so our dreams materialized into various stages. Amidst the pile of fifth grade homework, we sighed in despair and dreamed of the days when our twelve years of education would come to an end. Many of us could not come close to envisioning the door of freedom which we associated with graduation. But now our destiny is close at hand. Our dreams have changed drastically over the years and as each and everyone of us are unique individuals, so are our dreams. We have all created our own hopes for the future, yet we are all alike in that we possess a dream. We are excited for the future which lies ahead of us and we know that because of the knowledge and experience we have gained, we are closer to attaining our goals than we ever were before. Yes, we have dreamed many dreams, and changed our minds over and over again — but now — now it's our time to make those dreams a reality.

Linda Dolloff

We Have Dreamed Many Dreams; Now is our Time to Live Them.

The day has come, not to forget to keep dreaming, but to keep our dreams alive in our own way. Each of us will go a separate way; but, by carrying dreams with us, we will always have a common bond. When our dreams become a reality, it is important to fill our lives with more dreams and to keep this cycle alive. If this important cycle is broken, life would not be filled full of curiosity and hope. New goals will be set. No longer will we look for one day, as we did for graduation, but for every day, to live each one to the fullest. Like the first day, our last day of school will be the beginning of a new life for each of us.

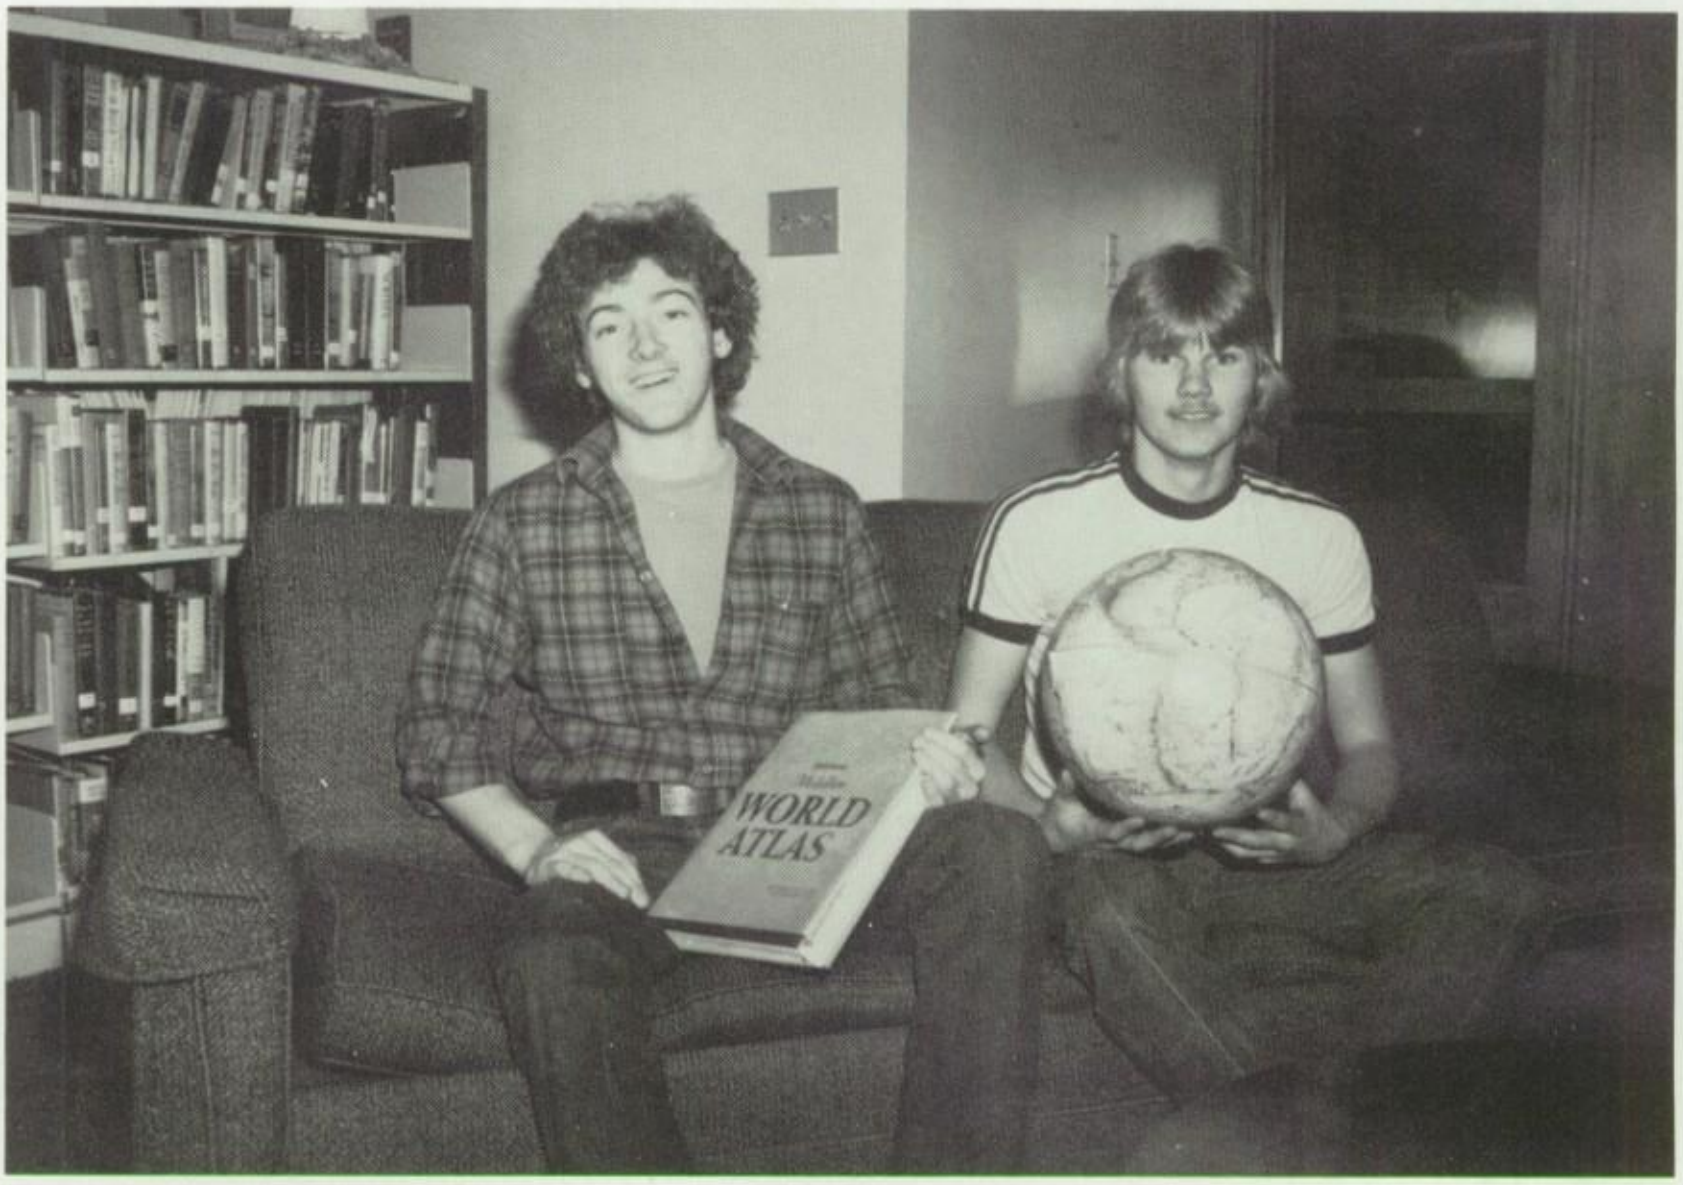
Exchange Students



Anders Janesten, John Bredahl

This year two exchange students, Anders Janesten and John Bredahl, have come to us through the American Scandinavian Student Exchange. They have been a part of our Senior Class and through their friendliness and out going personalities, we have come to know them as we know our dearest friends.

Anders Janesten is from Lidinge, Sweden. He is presently staying with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Jones of Waldoboro. His interests include motorcross, music, and skiing. He also enjoys running and wrestling and was an active participant in those sports here at Medomak.

John Bredahl is from Middlefart, Denmark, and is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gushee of Union. His interests include rock music, traveling, hunting, and soccer. His participation on the soccer team here at Medomak proved his outstanding ability in the sport.

We hope that Anders and John have enjoyed our friendship as much as we have enjoyed theirs.
